

MY OLD SCHOOL

A Tribute to the Music of Steely Dan

Entertaining the Denver Metro Area for Over 11 Years!

Band Bio

Denver’s own My Old School is the culmination of the efforts of a group of sleek musicians who feel a close affinity to the massive musical legacy that is Steely Dan – Walter Becker and Donald Fagen applied jazz sensibilities to popular music like no one else in the history of pop. As a group with credentials toward serious chopsmanship and an intellectually insurgent attitude, Steely Dan remains widely adored and all too scarcely imitated. My Old School goes deep into the Steely Dan repertoire – with dazzlingly brilliant solo work, astonishingly rich vocal and horn section harmonies, and powerfully tight, irresistible grooves, our faithful tribute will take you back and ‘Do It Again’, reliving a unique collaboration in pop music history.

LOCAL TALENT SPOTLIGHT – My Old School

By Rick Witt - November 21, 2022

The Classic Rock era of the late 1960’s through the late 1970’s produced some of the most enduring and iconic music ever laid down on vinyl. And one of the most unique, innovative, and groundbreaking acts to come out of that era was Steely Dan. The Walter Becker and Donald Fagen fronted act, which for the most part really was just Becker and Fagen joined by a rotating cast of session musicians, released seven albums between 1972 and 1980. Fifty years later, songs like “Do It Again”, “Reelin’ In The Years”, and “Dirty Work” are as fresh and immediate as they were when they appeared on the duo’s debut album, Can’t Buy A Thrill. Their music just doesn’t get old...
